GARDEN PARTY AT SHINN ESTATE BY BABY HOSPITAL

Refreshments and Lunch To Be Served Visitors

Plans are under way for the annual Baby hospital garden party which is to be given at the J. C. Shinn home, Niles, on May 24. Not all committeewomen have been appointed as yet, but at an early date they will be announced. Each year many interesting diversions are offered to spectators, and several amusments for children are especially featured. Luncheon is served in the garden, as is customary.

A luncheon table is reserved for business men of the community in order that they can be accomodated immediately upon arriving on the grounds, and service is given them between 12 and 2 o'clock, p. m. Following is a letter to Niles Chamber of Commerce, written by Mrs. William H. Ford, representing the Baby hospital.

Niles Chamber of Commerce,
Niles, Calif.

Dear Sirs:

Toyon Branch of the Baby Hospital Association is having its annual Garden Party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shinn, Saturday, May 24, and we hope that all of your members and many of your friends will be present for the ham dinner to be served by Mary Dowd Reardon at noon. We would like for you to take as many tickets as possible in order that we may know how many to prepare for. The following menu will be served: Salad, cream cheese, boiled ham, sweet pickels, potato chips, Gelatine dessert and cookies, pineapple juice iced, coffee and hot rolls.

We shall serve you promptly in order that you need not waste time at noon if your business calls you at that time. Urge your wives to come with the children. Booths will offer home-cooked food, candy, punch, novelties, etc., and games will be arranged for the kiddies. A get-together good time for the whole community is one of the objects of the undertaking. A program, free, will be given during the afternoon. Lunch will be served from 12 to 2 o'clock.

Proceeds will be given to the Baby Hospital of Alameda County. During the past year a number of children from this community have been treated at the Baby Hospital, charges made according to the income of the parents. We are especially interested in this institution because it is helping a class of people who try to help themselves, in other words "the middle class" who cannot afford highpriced medical treatments but who are not eligible or do not want charity.

Help us advertise this annual event which each year is gaining in popularity. Remember the date, Saturday, May 24. Be prepared to buy several tickets each at next week's meeting. Thanking you in advance for your co-operation,

Sincerely,
HELEN C. FORD

Governor C. C. Young Announces Candidacy

Governor C. C. Young, in a comprehensive statement, enunciating policies and reviewing the major accomplishments of his four years as state executive, today formally announced his candidacy for renomination and re-election. Governor Young's statement definitely established the record of this administration as the platform of his campaign. The announcement follows:

TO The Citizens Of California

Four years ago I came before you as Republican Candidate for Governor, equipped with a long legislative experience and eight years as Lieutanant-Governor, and earnestly desirous to render to my state a sound, business-like administration of its affairs. Today I come before you again, seeking renomination to this office if in your judgement my record as Governor entitles me to a second term.

I regard a governor as business manager of the enormously important and intricate business of the state. As manager I believe I have accomplished many things worth while, and have under way many important tasks yet uncompleted. I am asking for a second term in order that I may complete these tasks, just as a business manager who has labored hard and faithfully may justly expect that his stockholders should not displace him in favor of someone else without his experience or first-hand knowledge of the business

The four years of our present administration have placed our state finances on an exceedingly sound and healthful basis. Despite appropriations made for much-needed new institutions, such as a new state hospital, new prisons and the like, and despite the assistance we are now giving the counties by sharing the expense of providing aid for the indigent aged and the needy blind, we have so rigidly held down our general state expenditures that we now have a cash surplus of more than $29,000,000, the highest in the history of the state, a net gain of $6,000,00 during these four years.

During the past four years we have added greatly to the efficiency of our state government and to the economy of its operation by combining 130 disorganized and independent boards and commissions into 13 strong departments, each charged with carrying out its own major governmental function. The directors of these departments form a Governor's Council, and each month in a two day conference with the Governor review and discuss every government activity of each department during the preceding month. Thus, for the first time, the Governor, as the state's business manager, is kept in constant touch with every detail of the state's business

These are a few of the governmental accomplishments of the present administration—accomplishments by which I must be judged. The work of a governor is never-ending but the problems he has to solve are so interesting and important that I have keenly enjoyed this opportunity for service. If you who are the voters believe that it has been a service well performed and that I have kept faith, I shall be happy to dedicate to it another four years of my life, enabling me to complete the many tasks in which I am now engaged. I am content to leave the issue in your hands.

C. C. YOUNG.
Yours very sincerly,

DECOTO HOLDS ELECTION ONE MONTH LATE

Decoto at last has a bona-fide fire commissioner. Difficulties resulting from supposed absent mindness in connection with the election, which was to have been held on April 7, have been overcome, and all is reported to be peaceful in this community since a fire commissioner has been legally nominated and elected to office

William Hurst, who was candate for re-election won, and is now officially in. Votes cast at the election numbered fifty. To all intents and purposes Fire Commissioner William Hurst has never been out of office He was in without the formality of an election. Letters were sent to Earl Warren to determine just what might be done in a case of this kind, and after a period of meditation a decision was reached to hold a belated election on May 5, results of which have already been stated.

Botanist Says Weed Pest Is Becoming Agriculture Menace

H. C. Ball Tells About Development Of Hoary Cress

L. E. SMITH, president of Niles Chamber of Commerce, occupied the chair Tuesday, May 6, when the regular weekly meeting of this civic body was held at Florence restaurant. Nineteen members were present, and two guests, H. C. Ball, botanist from the State Department of Agriculture, and R. R. Kingman, special edition man.

Describes Weed Pest

Ball gave an interesting talk, and in it he clearly described a weed pest, called Hoary Cress, which is prevelant in San Luis Obispo county, and is now found generally throughout Washington township. He told of its effect on farm products, and the difficulties encountered in exterminating it.

Register Special Edition.

Kingman followed Ball with a talk on the special edition which is to be published by the Register in commemoration of the opening and dedication of Washington Township American Legion Veteran's Memorial building which has been erected by Post No. 195, after much time and effort was expended to make its dream a reality.

This large, special edition of the Register issue of May 29, will carry a complete history of the local American Legion post. It will be illustrated with several half-tone cuts, and, all in all, it is thought by the management of the Register that it will be a credit to the war veterans and the

NEW HYDRANTS TO AID IN WAR AGAINST FIRE

TWO NEW fire hydrants have been installed on the Niles-Decoto highway by Niles Fire Department. These will expedite service and make possible a more efficient campaign in fighting fire.

During the summer months fire hazard in this territory becomes great, due to dry grass and brush, and it is only through the efforts expended by the Niles firemen and those of adjoining communities that many homes and valuable property have been saved. Each year a great deal of grass is cut along the highways and on private property which lessens considerably the danger of fire starting, and spreading, once it starts.

A suggestion has been made that before any real serious conflagration occurs all possible precautions be taken to forestall such a contingency. A little time and energy put forth now may prevent what might prove a very disasterous conflagration having its incipiency in a blaze starting in dry grass by the roadside.

Parent-Teacher Group To Install Officers

Niles Parent-Teacher Association at a recent meeting elected officers for the coming year, and transacted other business of importance to the organization.

The new officials are all outstanding people of this community, insuring Parent-Teachers Association a fruitful year.

Following is the list of new officers: Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth, president; Mrs. Ronald Bendel, vice president; Mrs. M. Rogers, recording secretary; Mrs. J. M. Williamson, secretary; Mrs. E. Habenicht, treasurer; Mrs. L. Solon, auditor; Mrs Harvey Braum, parlimentarian; Mrs George Bonde, historian; and Mrs. J. E. Townsend and Mrs Elmer Brinkmeyer, delegates.

Installation of these officers will be held at the next meeting of the organization—May 13. The occasion, it is thought, will be very well attended, and an event of importance to the organization.

NILES MAN HURT IN CAR SMASHUP NEAR UNDERPASS

Santos Carrillo, an employee of the Hanrahan Construction Company, sustained several cuts and bruises Sunday when he was thrown from his car when it collided with another car near the underpass of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, on the state highway, in west Niles. Carrillo was taken to the Niles Emergency hospital, where he was treated by Dr. E. C. Grau.

The driver of the other car received several minor cuts and bruises. His name was not learned by the hospital attaches, as he left the hospital immediately after getting treatment.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Ed. Vargas entertained at a party Sunday in honor of the ninth birthday of her niece, Lillian Freitas. Approximately twenty guests were present, and all enjoyed the divertisements of the afternoon, following which delicious and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

MISSION SAN JOSE TO BE SCENE OF IMPORTANT EVENT

Dominican Sisters to Hold Ground-Breaking Sunday

The convent grounds in historic Mission San Jose de Guadalupe will be the scene of an important event on Sunday afternoon, May 1, at 2:30 o'clock. The occasion will be that of the ground-breaking for the new motherhouse of the Dominican Sisters.

An interesting program has been prepared to celebrate the event. The Boys' Band of St. Vincent's Orphanage and a distinguished male choir, of San Francisco, will render selections. Right Reverend Monsignor McElroy of St. Vincent's will deliver the address of the day.

The sisters have been working in the Archdiocese of San Francisco since 1876. Today they teach numerous schools, both elementary and secondary, from San Antonio, Texas, in the south, to Portland, Oregon, in the north. They are in charge of diocesan Boys' Orphanage at St. Vincent, Marin county. They conduct homes for children at Mission San Jose and Ukiah. They give religious instruction to the youth in rural districts. They do mission work among the Indians of Mendocino county.

The public is cordially invited to attend the ceremony.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

By NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

THE GOOD MAN FROM UTAH.

"THE NATION" AND many other publications of a progressive trend have been ridiculing Senator Smoot, of Utah, for his serious avowal that if he were not a virtuous man he would leave the Morman church immediately, if not sooner than that. The matter crystalized in a debate over reputed obscene books that were excluded from this country at the port of New York, and elsewhere.

It seems that young Cutting, of New Mexico, recently appointed to fill an unexpired term in the senate of the deceased Senator Sam Vratton, had moved to have a board created to review all exclusion orders, and pass finally upon the merits of each individual publication. This, naturally, gave the naughty books one more good chance to reach the virtuous eye of America. Smoot opposed the legislation with vigor, climaxing his peroration with the above statement about what should happen to him if he became polluted by vile reading.

Of course we all know that Mormanism had a great sex attraction in its early days for the naturally polygamous male. It drew to its standard a great many abnormal sexualists. That a single generation of enforced anti-polygamy in Utah should have made the members of that religion strictly a virtuous, one-woman, one-man organization seems to have awakened the skepticism of many writers, with the result that Apostle Smoot has been made the butt of many a ribald jest.

But after all, morals are a matter of government, of church decree. If the church says a man may have a dozen wives, there is no wrong. If the government sanctions polygamy, or condones concubinage, who will say it is an evil practice? Individual thought or conscience seems not to enter into the matter at all.

These bad books that Mr. Cutting wanted to have America read, doubtless would excite one to any other course than moral rectitude. Therefore, Mr. Smoot, whose religion formerly stood for just that thing, cries the loudest against the impending evil.

** * **

The writer once worked on the paper owned by this Mr. Cutting, the Santa Fe New Mexican. The young man comes from the rich New York state Cutting family of railroad fame. The now Senator Cutting at that time was threatened with tuberculosis. So he went to Santa Fe, New Mexico. He built a mansion a mile or two out of that alien city on American soil. The paper took a few suggestive flings at his conduct, so he bought the sheet to stop its clamor. He put in an editor by the name of Dana Johnson, who was all that his first name implied—a writer of force and an editor of parts. Johnson made war on the Mexican ring, evidently the clique that had annoyed the young aristocrat. It was a great fight. The people who worked on the paper did not know what minute they might be thrown in jail on some trumped up charge by the gang of Spaniards that ran the city and the state. To get drunk, was the worst kind of folly. It meant silent confinement as sure as chili beans would be served on the menus of Santa Fe restaurants. Under the tension of uncertainty we left for quieter regions. Cutting must have won his fight for he is now senator, and the avowed champion in the senate of uncensored literature.

The young man in those days was a bachelor of nocturnal proclivities. Many a gay party, figuratively speaking, raised the roof of that voluptuously furnished hacienda overlooking ancient Santa Fe. We are not surprised, then, that the senator is far from prudish. That he should champion undraped literature and art, seems but natural to the writer, who knew him in his carefree bachelor days.

Another Reason for Incorporation.

Niles is not on the map in the census report. Because it is an unincorporated town, like its sister communities in Washington township, it is counted in Alameda county returns. No individuality—no personality. Just a part of a unit in a big county.

ZANE GREY EPIC SINGS AND TALKS AT FOX OAKLAND

Zane Grey's all-talking outdoor picture, "Light of the Western Stars," and the famous troupe of Singer's Midgets will provide colorful screen and stage entertainment at the Fox Oakland theatre starting Friday.

A vow to wed the first women he meets brings Richard Arlen trouble and romance in the Paramount all-talkie, acclaimed by critics one of the finest of outdoor dramas. Mary Brian will be seen as the girl from the East, Fred Kohler plays the two-gun badman and Richard Arlen is cast as the cowboy lover.

Thirty tiny performers ranging in age from 18 to 50 years will present ten bizarre and fast-moving acts in Fanchon and Maraco's "Miniatures Idea." Among the novelties will be the Midgets' Jazz Band, dance ensembles by wee chorines, a boxing act, and sensational feats of strength by the midget strong man. A sparkling Oriental episode, "A Thief in Bagdad," will be offered as grand finale. In the latter the midgets use trained elephants, ponies, reindeer, camels, dogs and ducks.

FIRE HOUSE DEDICATION DATE FIXED

Decoration Day, May 30, Is Set by Pleasanton Organization

TRUCK IS ORDERED FIXED

Gear Ratio Change to Increase Power Is Authorized

Decoration Day was selected as a fitting date for the dedication of Pleasanton's new fire house at a joint meeting of the Volunteer Firemen's Association and the city council of that city at the fire house Monday evening.

Following considerable discussion as to the most appropiate day for the dedication, the May 30 date was selected as it is a national holiday and would afford the greater portion of the residents of Pleasanton the opportunity to attend. The services will be held in the afternoon, allowing the American Legion, which organization will take part in the dedication, the morning to conduct its Memorial Day service at the cemeteries.

A committee consisting of Mayor A. B. Pickard, representing the city council, R. W. Apperson, representing the American Legion, and Will Graham, representing the fire department, was appointed to complete the arrangements for the dedication.

The firemen were assured by Apperson that the American Legion would be able by that date to have the flag pole at the fire house and, likewise, to have the plaque ready for dedication along with the fire house ceremonies. The Legion will have the names of the men from Pleasanton Township who gave their all under the Stars and Stripes during the Big Push overseas, engraved on the tablet.

The fire house has been completed for some time. The furnishing of the club rooms and kitchen also have been completed and the members of the fire department now have one of the finest buildings for their use of any small city in the state.

The application of David Millsap to be a resident in the fire house was acted upon with favor. This will give Pleasanton an added protection against fires in the night time as there now will be one person on hand at all hours of the night.

Chief Will Graham was authorized to have the gear ratio in the big truck reduced in order that the vehicle will be able to surmount the hills it is required to climb in answering calls over the township.

It was reported that on several occasions the truck has been stalled, and inasmuch as the fire hazard season will be here within the next thirty days, the department authorized the chief to have the truck taken to the facory and the gear ratio reduced.

At present the truck has a speed of sixty miles per hour, which it was deemed much more than necessary. About fifteen miles per hour will be sacrificed to give the truck the additional power needed to climb the hills.

WELFARE MEETING HELD AT LIBRARY THURSDAY, MAY 1ST

Southern Alameda County Welfare board, children's department, held its monthly meeting, May 1, at the Jane Clough Memorial Library building. The chairman, E. Burr, and Mrs. Lulu Boyd Stevens, executive-secretary, presided.

Financial reports were gratifying in the extreme. By cutting down expenses in a sensible manner there was a $165.90 reduction on the debt. The donations on the much-needed washing machine were enough to finish payments.

Problems of the children were discussed and cases decided. The clothing needs and supply was handled in a talk by Mrs. A. A. Hatch. Sixty new pieces had been received up to date. Mr. Griggs, with H. C. Penny & Co. had been very kind; Mrs. Fredericks, of the Cottage Bakery, the barbers Union, and in fact everyone responded in a most commendable manner.

AUTOMOBILE HINTS

Lights that "pop out" suddenly and much too frequently usually are victims of a condition resulting from a poor connection between the generator and the battery. Any such trouble is apt to be preceded by a flickering of the lights when the car is running at moderate speeds at night and this furnishes an excellent opportunity to head off the loss of a pair of headlight bulbs..

Why bulbs burn out under such circumstances is not a difficult matter to understand. It figures this way:

Without proper contact between generator and battery there is a tendency for the former to build up an excess of current and to deliver it suddenly when the connections just happen to make good contact momentarily.

LIONS WILL HOLD FETE ON MAY 20

Pleasanton Charter Night Will be Held at Castlewood Club

INTERESTING PROGRAM

Hayward Lions Entertain There on Tuesday Evening

Pleasanton Lions will give their first gala affair since their organization, it was announced at last week's meeting held in Ratti's Restaurant, Pleasanton, on Tuesday evening, May 20, at Castlewood Country Club.

The party will be Charter Night which is always one of the outstanding events of Lionism as but one such event may be staged in each Lions club. More than two hundred guests are expected as every den in the Golden Gate Council, of which Pleasanton is a member, has sent word to President Jerome Arendt that they will send representatives.

In additional to being Charter Night the Lions voted to make this celebration open to the ladies. Inasmuch as the ladies will be guests the two hundred attendance estimate is now believed to be conservative.

At this week's meeting the Hayward Lions club took charge of the program and arranged a very enjoyable entertainment program. This consisted of several readings and a number of songs by wives of two of Hayward Lions.

Interest in Lionism is continuing unabated in that city, it was revealed at the meeting. Dr. M. E. Eastman, chairman of the membership committee, reported four aplications for membership. The attendance was about ninety per cent of the enrollment.

Next week's meeting will be devoted to business including plans for Charter Night and discussing plans for Boy Scout work. The Oakland Lions will have charge of the following session on May 13.

CONTEST WINNERS GIVEN PRIZES ON SUNDAY

Sunday, May 11, winners of the Sunday school attendance contest, which was held at Niles Congregational church, will receive prizes and will be guests of the losers at a breakfast in the Sunday school rooms. Two teams were chosen, called the Purples and the Golds. The latter was victor.

Reverend Elmer C. Brinkmeyer, interviewed by a Register representative stated that enrollment in the Sunday school had increased fully twenty-five per cent since inauguration of the attendance contest. Great interest was displayed by members and results of this handicap proved to be most satisfactory.

Breakfast, which is being sponsored by Purples, losing team, is to be served in the school rooms, and will consist of oranges, breakfast food, hot rolls, scrambled eggs, and chocolate. All Sunday school members are invited to attend this affair

PEA PICKERS NEAR RIOT WHEN AUTO ACTS LIKE MULE

Local Constables Called To Quell Angry Throng of Workers

An automobile, reported to be of ancient vintage, and mulish temperament, owned by Jesus Garcia, ranch worker, was held responsible for a riot which occurred Saturday among a large gathering composed of pea-pickers employed on a Centerville ranch.

According to reports, the riot started when Garcia made an attempt to start his car in the orthodox manner of stepping on the starter. Right then the car adopted the tactics of its contemporary, the mule, and refused to budge.

Garcia's idea, naturally, under such a situation was to push the beast ahead. This he did. The car moved. During the operation of getting the car going, Garcia figured that his wife was at the steering wheel. She was not. She was helping her husband push.

With a roar the car started, and gathering momentum traveled with speed and brought up with a bang against a tree in its path. In the wake five cars were left at the side of the trail damaged by contact with the balky vehicle.

Owners of damaged automobiles decended upon Garcia and in a vehement manner sought revenge for his carelessness. A hurried call for Constables Tom Silva, of Centerville, and Manuel J. Bernardo, of Alvarado, for assistance, was necessary to quell the pugilistic impulses of the crowd.

Due to the fact that warmer weather is at hand, it is advisable when the oil is changed in the crank case to put in a little heavier grade than you have been using. Warmer weather makes the motor run hotter and of course causes the oil to become thinner.

FINAL OPERATION UNDER WAY ON CITY STREET

Street paving is nearing its final stages with but a week needed to mark its finish. William Brockett, resident engineer, stated that by lineal measurement 3,000 feet of concrete had been laid, and that 300 feet of part circle culverts had been placed up to date.

In the center of the street an eighteen-foot strip is to be filled with a final layer of asphaltic composition. This operation is necessary to make a smooth, unbroken thoroughfare extending from Central avenue to intersection of the Newark highway.

Sidewalks and driveways are being placed in front of the El Lido restaurant and on property owned by Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

COUNTY FIREMEN WILL MEET HERE NEXT THURSDAY

Two Hundred Expected For Barbecue Dinner Celebration

Alameda County Firemen's Association will be the guests of the Pleasanton Fire Department this evening, (May 8th) at a barbecue dinner to be given at McKinley park. More than 200 this week by Fire Chief Will Graham. More than two hundred guests are expected to attend the meeting, with possibly more present as the association has close to three hundred members.

One of the important features of the business meeting to be held immediately after the barbecue dinner will be the discussion of a paper on fighting fires in the hills. This paper will be written by one of the fire chiefs who has had experience with hill fires. It is thought that the Niles department members will have considerable comment to offer on the paper as the local boys have had much experience with fires of that type.

It also is thought that the matter of procuring a fire truck for use over the county will be taken up.

As a part of the entertainment Chief Graham, Pleasanton, stated that the orchestra from the Oakland fire department had been secured for the occasion.

The barbecue will start at 7:30 p. m. The association members will gather at the Pleasanton fire house and inspect it before going to the park for the barbecue and business meeting.

Niles Fire department will be represented at this affair by H. B. Rathbun, chief, A. M. Alves, Clarence Crane, and Emanuel E. Dias. These four men take active interested in al departmental projects and plans for betterment and futherance of civic welfare, and this is proved by the efficiency with which their unit operates in an emergency.

MOTORING HINTS

Fast driving on long trips has a tendency to loosen the valves, especially when the car is not accustomed to a high speed. Although engineers have done much to make valve gearing stand up under high speed work, still there is always a chance of some loosening. Therefore, if after a trip the car does not seem to be functioning up to par, have your mechanic take a look at the valve adjustment.

"THE ROGUE SONG" OPENS AT T&D THIS FRIDAY EVENING

He took what he pleased and pleased what he took! Meet Lawrence Tibbett, the bandit lover of "The Rogue Song," M.G.M.'s all-color, all-singing and talking romance opening Friday at the Fox T & D theater, Oakland.

"The Rogue Song" is the story of a bandit chieftain who robbed the rich to help the poor, who wooed with song and deviltry, who possessed what was denied him. Lovely Catherine Dale Owen is the woman whom he sweeps into his heart with the glory of his voice. Nance O'Neill, Oakland's own actress, is a second haughty princess, and Ullrich Haupt is the handsome prince who dares betray the sister of the robber bandit. And—here's the big surprise—Laurel and Hardy are in the picture, those two funny comedians at whom you've laughed so often in silent and talking comedies. Other names, equally famous, include Lionel Belmore, Kate Price and Burr MacIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. A. MacDonald, of Oakland, visited at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Al. Juhl, in Niles Canyon, Sunday.

IN CALIFORNIA...

Ice Boxes are seen by all your friends

California hospitality . . . with friends often gathering informally in the kitchen . . . means that every housewife should take pride in keeping that kitchen in accordance with 1930 standards.

How about your old ice box! Does it have the gleaming sanitary appearance of the modern ice refrigerator . . . or do you feel apologetic for its looks?

And of far more importance than looks alone . . . do you realize that modern ice refrigeration is important in guarding your family's health?

New developments . . . research by Columbia University engineers . . . years of experience, have gone into these beautiful new refrigerators. Temperatures are safely below 50°. Scientific air circulation carries away every trace of odor and impure air. (Only with ice refrigeration is this possible; only with ICE can you preserve the full flavor and juices of your foods.)

For as little as $25 (others only up to $65) you can have one of the beautiful white or pastel colored ice refrigerators delivered and installed in your home. Easy terms and a liberal allowance on your old ice box.

Ask your ice man today.

Especially in the summer months . . . there is a demand for more ice for cold drinks and table use. With an ice refrigerator, you need never be annoyed by that dismal cry "we're out of ice" . . . so common in the house with a chemical-electric refrigerator.

ODD FELLOWS BARBECUE IS POPULAR EVENT

Steaks, Beans, Rolls, Coffee and Music Help Make Affair Successful

Barbecued steaks, baked beans, coffee and rolls composed the feast served at McKinley park, Pleasanton, on Saturday evening by the Odd Fellows of that city, who had as their guests, members of the Rebekah order and their families. More than 150 persons were served.

About 100 steaks cut from the most choice portions of a baby beef furnished the most substantial portion of the barbecue. The beans were prepared by Crawford Letham, as were the rolls. David Millsap brewed the coffee.

P. C. Madsen and George Roraback acted as chefs of the evening beginning their hot and smoky work shortly after six o'clock. This was the first big barbecue to be staged at the park since the barbecue pits were completed. The pits worked to perfection as did the small grills.

As everyone was seated about the big tables devouring the delicious steaks, George West arrived in his big truck, with the members of Oscar Schreiber's Straight Eight Dance Band riding in the back. The band furnished music during the dinner and then were seated at one of the tables and fed until Schreiber ordered a halt for fear his musicians would be too full to give a good account of themselves at the dance which followed in the Odd Fellows' Hall.

During the first part of the hot weather the car probably will begin to develope squeaks and rattles. This is due to the dampness being driven out by the change of temperature. Squeaks and rattles should be eliminated immediately.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY IS GIVEN FRIDAY AT SHMIDL HOME

Pleasanton Married People Plan Series of Keep Young Longer Affairs

Keep young longer was the motive behind the first of a delightful series of monthly parties planned by several Pleasanton young married couples, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shmidl on Spring street, of that city, last Friday evening.

The first party was arranged by Mrs. Shmidl and Mrs. S. A. Paskewitz. Mrs. Ollie Page and Mrs. R. C. Draper will give the May party.

The entire evening was spent in impersonating characters suitable to keeping young. In this case everyone was ordered to impersonate themselves at the age of sixteen. All succeeded very well with the exceptions of Spencer Miller and Ollie Page, those two never having advanced beyond that age and therefore only acted natural.

Games of various sorts, contests, card playing and the like occupied the greater portion of the time. There also was some singing but it was so much off key that the less said the better.

Coffee and cakes were served at the close of the evening, with Joe Shmidl and Spence Miller taking all honors for devouring coffee and cake, each eating an entire cake and drinking a percolator of coffee apiece.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Paskewitz, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Page, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Rhodes.
